(3) Introduction of Kannada and Sanskrit as Optional subject is subject to the approval of the Deputy Director of Public Instruction.

(4) Candidates who wish to take the Humanistic Group are required to intimate to the office clearly the names of Optional Subjects (constituting the Group) they wish to take on or before 7th May 1941.

Memo dated 1st April 1941.

Reference—No. D. Dis. 711-81 of 1940-41, dated 27th November 1940, from the Deputy Director of Public Instruction, Mysore.

The following Rules regarding the re-joining of school by the promoted and detained (failed or unselected), students of the School are notified for the information and guidance of the candidates concerned :—

(1) The names of no detained and promoted pupils are to be automatically taken on the rolls and carried on from day to day even though they do not turn up. Until a pupil has actually attended school and taken his seat in the class, his name will not be entered on the rolls of the school. Every detained or promoted pupil should join the school on the re-opening day after the summer vacation, failing which he runs the risk of his seat being given to a fresh pupil.

(2) If there is accommodation and the detained or promoted pupil joins the school on or before the 31st of May in a High School, he may be given a seat and not required to pay any admission fees. If he does not join within that period, he has to pay an admission fee.

(3) If, however, the parent or guardian of the detained or promoted pupil requests the Headmaster that a seat may be reserved for his ward as he is prevented from joining the school on the re-opening day on account of illness (supported by a medical certificate) or in connection with any marriage or such other causes, a seat may be reserved for him till the 31st of May (inclusive) if it is in a High School. If he joins after the specified date, he should also pay the admission fee.

(4) Since this levy is a penalty for not attending the school from the date of reopening, the collection amounts to a re-admission fee. Students belonging to the Depressed Classes should, therefore, pay half of the admission fee under this head.

(5) The above Rules will come into force from the beginning of the next academic year, i.e., 1941-42.

B. RAJIVALOCHANAM,
Headmaster.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT

OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.

Circular No. 430—B(ii), dated 24th March 1941.

To

All Drawing Officers in the State.

Sir,

Procedure for posting transactions in the Cash Book.

I have the honour to state that there is no uniformity at present in noting details of salary and contingent payments in the cash books of the several offices. In some offices full details are noted and in some others only one entry is made daily with a remark "as per Acquittance Roll" or "as per Contingent Register Sub-Register Nos." With a view to have a uniform procedure in this respect, the following instructions may be kindly noted for posting the transactions relating to disbursement of pay and contingent charges in the Cash Book.

As the details for the pay disbursed each day are available in the Acquittance Roll, which is preserved for 40 years (vide Article 39-A of the Mysore Civil Account Code, Volume I), the total amount of pay disbursed each day may be posted as one transaction in the Cash Book.

As regards contingent expenditure, the details of which are available in the Contingent Register, which is preserved only for five years (vide Article 39-A, Mysore Civil Account Code, Volume I), in order to know the details of expenditure at a later date, brief particulars for each sub-voucher regarding the name of payee, his bill number and date, if any, and nature of purchase made (details by items as shown in the voucher are not required, should be entered in the Cash Book. It will not do to enter in such cases in the Cash Book only the remark "as per Contingent Registers, etc.," for the reason stated above.

I have the honour to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
M. VIRARAJA URS,
Comptroller.

Circular No. 431, dated 26th March 1941.

To

All Treasury Officers.

Re. differences between the treasury figures and the consolidated treasury receipts granted by the treasuries with respect to Electrical Remittances made into the treasuries.

Several instances of discrepancies between the figures furnished in the consolidated treasury receipt and the treasury subsidiary register of Electrical Remittances are brought to the notice of this office and it is observed that the treasury officers are granting C. T. R's. with reference to the departmental remittance registers and not according to the treasury subsidiary register of receipts. This has caused a great deal of unnecessary work all round in reconciliation of the two sets of figures. The attention of all the Treasury Officers is therefore invited to Article 490 M. C. A. C., Vol. II, laying down the procedure with regard
